

The boundary triangles are identified with opposite orientations.
The thick edge uB pairs the two retained triangles.