

The linear entropy gain exceeds the quadratic action cost for a sufficiently small positive t.